👻 LES MAILLOTS

GREEN JERSEY

Sprint Classification

Metric: Arch Points

Objective: Cumulative sprint points. The rider with the most points wins, even if they finish last in every stage.

YELLOW JERSEY

General Classification

Metric: Cumulative Time

Objective: Rewards the best cumulative performance across all six stages.

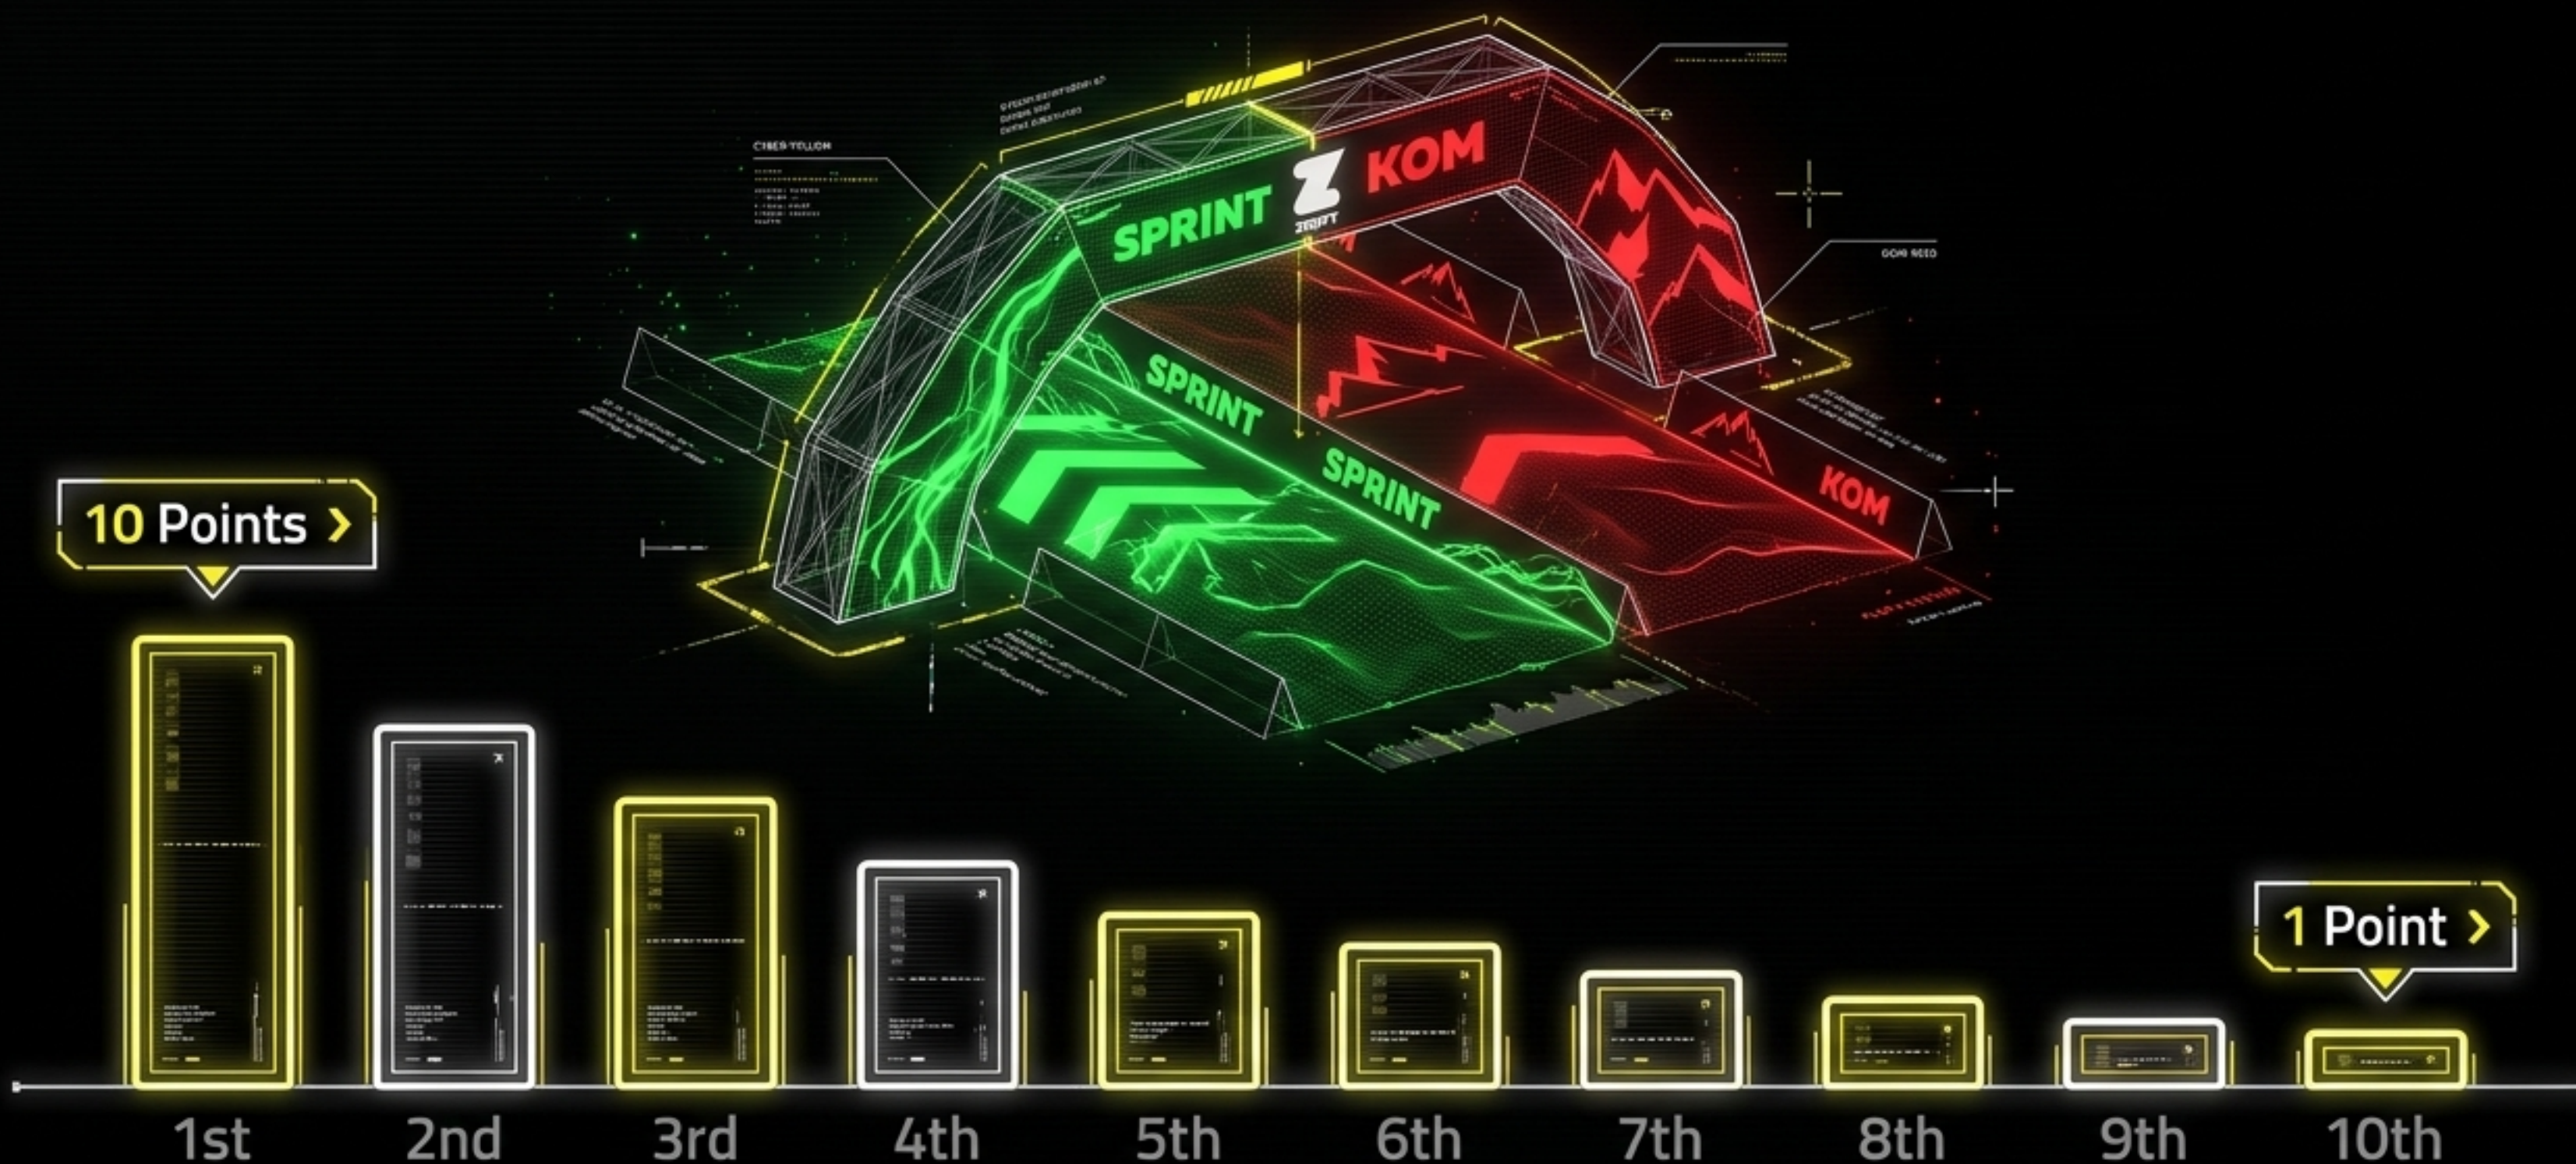

POLKA DOT JERSEY

KOM Classification

Metric: Elevation Points

Objective: Cumulative points scored specifically at King of the Mountain arches.

Points are cumulative across all 6 stages. Harvesting points requires perfectly timed explosive efforts beneath specific sprint and KOM arches. The race within the race.

CONNECTIVITY:

SOLO OPERATIVE

DYNAMICS: Solely responsible for attacks, pacing, and point harvesting. Pure individual output.

THE SYNDICATE / TEAM OF 2-3

DYNAMICS: Ability to sacrifice, protect a leader, control the peloton, and execute lead-outs.

THE HALO EFFECT

STRATEGIC MULTIPLIER: When a team member leads a jersey classification, all members of that team wear the same jersey, allowing them to visibly control the peloton.
